KR SteakBar – Atlanta, Georgia

ADAC West, 349 Peachtree Hills Avenue, Suite D-2, Atlanta, GA 30305

Design Brief

Here goes the neighborhood! Peachtree Hills will soon be welcoming a rare sight – a new restaurant. Chef Rathbun selected this quiet, neighborhood location for his latest concept, an Italian steak bar. The menu draws inspiration from KRS, while infusing Italian dishes as well. The open floor plan is structured to encourage a communal and cozy atmosphere...perfect for sampling the numerous small plates and striking conversations with neighbors. Glowing walls with walnut wood strip accents illuminate guests who perch at a rectangular bar overlooking a comfy leather lounge and lively alfresco dining complete with a canopy of mature magnolia trees. Bravo! Opening Winter 2013.

Project Team:

Square Footage: 4,000 sq. ft. inside; 1,000 sq. ft. exterior patio

Seating: 139 total indoor: consisting of 49 seats at the bar / lounge; 80 seats main level; 10 private dining room; 62 seats total: outside patio

Design Elements:

Inside: expo kitchen with custom metal and blown glass surround; contemporary bar lights suspended from custom metal armature; custom back-lit iron and amber glass panel chandeliers, central semi-private dining area features custom cherry wood table flanked by custom leather chairs at each end; reclaimed gate sculpture at entry; honed Michaelangelo marble at bar and custom communal table; rustic white oak flooring throughout; hand painted murals in restrooms inspired by antique etchings.

Central Private Dining Room: Wood framing is cloaked by an artful installation of sheers and ropes to offer semi-private to private dining. Lanterns suspend off a ladder inspired structure in the center offering ambient lighting.

Custom Bar: honed Michelangelo marble bar top and subway tile bar face dotted with custom iron and glass bar lamps.

Custom Wine Room: Glass walls offer a view into the wine room, a collection of 900 bottles including select Italian labels.
